

I support this petition in its entirety. The FCC must ensure high standards for the Amateur Radio Service by increasing the technical content of the written exams and maintaining CW testing; 5 wpm for General class and 12 wpm for Extra class. The content of exams should be determined by the FCC and not the VEC.